

As of June 1, 2010 our Executive Committee voted to have all annual memberships expire on December 1. This simplifies the management of renewals therefore saving time and money for the association.

Don't miss out on the perks of being a member of THE TEXAS AMATEUR QUARTER HORSE ASSOCIATION!

- Texas Amateur Quarter Horse Association has given year end awards to the amateur rider for many years. TA plans to seek greater member participation in this very successful program. Beginning in 2010 all sanctioned Texas AQHA shows will count for points toward year end awards.
- Training events hosted by well-known trainers who will cover subjects from "tips for beginning horsemen" to "advanced horsemanship and halter" offered through local associations.
- TA will more intensely encourage participation in ranch rides for the recreational rider. This is a rapidly growing sector of horse interest and offers pleasure to those that do not compete in shows. Year-end awards will be presented.
- TA feels that the cattle events need stronger support and plans to create a committee to focus on growing participation in this group. The rule change that provides that all Texas AQHA shows count for yearend awards is a first step to increase participation in cattle events.

TAQHA is a separate organization from TQHA (Texas Quarter Horse Association). To be eligible for TAQHA year-end awards and the other benefits of your Amateur Association your TAQHA membership must be current through the end of year.

THE TEXAS AMATEUR QUARTER HORSE ASSOCIATION is committed to the Texas amateur rider and to those that will make involvement with the Quarter Horse more rewarding and more fun.
